

Trans 4 Mations Home Office

More and more people are working from home these days.

A home office is a luxury once considered for the few and outside most peoples' price ranges. But not any more.

Trans 4 Mations can help you create your own home office, creating your own work space designed and fitted around you.

No more stacks of paper and files on the kitchen table, no more mislaid reports and clutter, or frantic searches for a pen under a mound of paperwork.

Our fitted home office furniture can transform a room or even part of a room into your own personalised home office, and we can even incorporate awkward unused space, adapting it into a unique, functional and easy to use work area.

All our home office furniture is custom made to the highest standards and to your specification, offering you practical storage solutions that fit into your home and lifestyle, and all for a lot less than you think.

From small desks designed to blend in with existing lounge or bedroom furniture to full room transformations.

Follow these 3 simple steps and you could be working in your new home office sooner than you'd believe:

Call Trans 4 Mations and arrange a design visit, our home office design consultant will call, carry out a survey, and discuss your ideas detailed drawings of your home office will be created, and an itemised quote of your options will be posted to you.

once you've made your choices and placed your order , our qualified fitters can be installing your new home office in as little as four weeks

Beautiful, handcrafted home office furniture created to enhance your home and organise your life.
